Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) Grants to Indian Organizations for Off-Reservation

Indian Child and Family Service Programs

AGENCY: Bureau of Indian Affairs, Office of Indian Services.

ACTION: Solicitation of proposals.

PROGRAM OVERVIEW, PROGRAM DESCRIPTION: The Secretary of the Interior (Secretary), through the Bureau of Indian Affairs (BIA), is soliciting grants from Indian Organizations to establish and operate off-reservation Indian child and family service programs. The intent of the Indian child and family service programs are to provide services for stabilizing Indian families and Tribes, preventing the breakup of Indian families and, in particular, to ensure that the permanent removal of an Indian child from the custody of his/her Indian parent or Indian custodian shall be a last resort.

Certified Local Governments are encouraged to prioritize projects in support of the celebration of America's 250th birthday (America250). This may include, but is not limited to, preservation 2 planning, interpretation, public engagement, and rehabilitation projects that recognize and honor the nation's founding, history and cultural heritage.

DATES: Grant application packages must be submitted no later than 5 p.m. Eastern Daylight Time, TBD. The BIA will not consider proposals received after this time and date.

ADDRESSES: Grant application packages must be submitted through Grants.gov. For information on how to apply for grants in Grants.gov, see the instructions available at:

<https://www.grants.gov/help/html/help/Applicants/HowToApplyForGrants.htm>.

FOR FURTHER INFORMATION CONTACT: If you have questions regarding the application process, please contact Andi Wilson, Grants Management Officer at (571) 560-0398.

I. Background

In Fiscal Year (FY) 2020, the Congress appropriated $1.0 million to fund off-reservation programs authorized by section 202 of the ICWA (25 U.S.C. Section 1932). In FY 2021, the Congress again allocated $1.0 million for ICWA, to fund off-reservation Indian Organizations authorized by section 202 of the ICWA (25 U.S.C. Section 1932), just as it did in the FY 2020 appropriations. In FY 2022, the Congress appropriate $1.5 million to fund off-reservation programs by section 202 of the ICWA (25 U.S.C. Section 1932). In FY 2023, the Congress appropriated $2 million to fund off-reservation programs by section 202 of the ICWA (25 U.S.C.

Section 1932). In FY 2024, the Congress appropriated $2 million to fund off-programs by section 202 of the ICWA (25 U.S.C. Section 1932). In FY 2025, the Congress appropriated $2 million to fund off-reservation programs by section 202 of the ICWA (25 U.S.C. Section 1932) The funds made available pursuant to P.L. 119-4 Full Year Continuing Appropriation and Extensions Act (March 18, 2025).

The BIA is the Federal agency charged with administering ICWA funding to Federally recognized Tribes and will distribute a total of $2.0 million (subject to FY 2025 fund availability) in grants to off-reservation Indian Organizations through a competitive grant process as outlined in 25 CFR §23.31-23.35, Subpart D. Grants to off-reservation Indian Organizations for Title II Indian Child and Family Services Programs which will include, but are not limited to:

- (1) a system for regulating, maintaining, and supporting Indian foster and adoptive homes, including a subsidy program under which Indian adoptive children may be provided support comparable to that for which they would be eligible as Indian foster children, taking into account the appropriate State standards of support for maintenance and medical needs;
- (2) the operation and maintenance of facilities and services for counseling and treatment of Indian families and Indian foster and adoptive children;
- (3) family assistance, including homemaker and home counselors, day care, afterschool care, and employment, recreational activities, and respite care; and
- (4) guidance, legal representation, and advice to Indian families involved in child custody proceedings.^a

25 U.S.C § 1932

This solicitation contains guidelines and instructions for writing and submitting a proposal. The BIA will use a competitive evaluation process.

A. Authority

This ICWA grant program uses funding that is provided through non-recurring appropriations made by the Congress in its annual appropriations to the BIA. These funds are provided on a year-to-year basis and may or may not be provided in future years.

The House Report (H. R.) 119-1968, Department of the Interior, Environment and Related Agencies Appropriations Bill, 2025 provided $2,000,000 once again as provided in the fiscal year 2025 for off-reservation programs authorized by section 202 of ICWA (25 U.S.C. 1932).

Additional authorizing statutes for the program include:

- Section 202 of ICWA (25 U.S.C. 1932)
- P.L. 93-638, ISDEAA of 1975, as amended
- P.L. 101-630, The Indian Child Protection and Family Violence Prevention Act
- P.L. 114-165, Native American Children's Safety Act (NACSA) of 2016
- 25 CFR part 23, ICWA
- 25 U.S.C. 1901 et seq., ICWA of 1978
- 2 CFR, Grants and Agreements, Volume 1, 1-299
- 43 CFR part 18 (31 U.S.C. 1352) New Restrictions on Lobbying
- Indian Child Welfare Act Title II Authorities

B. Paperwork Reduction Act

The information collection contained in this notice is authorized under OMB Control Number 1076-0131. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to a collection of information unless it displays a currently valid OMB control number.

II. Eligibility

Eligibility for funding will be limited to activities that support and are consistent with the intent and activities outlined in the Indian Child Welfare Act (ICWA) section 202 (25 U.S.C. 1932).

Indian Organizations may apply individually or as a consortium for a grant under this notice. Indian Organization, solely for purpose of eligibility for grants, means any legally established group, association, partnership, corporation, or other legal entity which is owned or controlled by Indians, or a majority (51 percent or more) of whose members are Indians. A consortium is created by an agreement or association between two or more eligible applicants who enter into an agreement to administer a grant program and to provide services under the grant to Indian residents in a specific geographical area when it's administratively feasible to provide an adequate level of service within the area. An applicant may not submit more than one application nor be the beneficiary of more than one grant under this notice.

III. Categories of Available Funding

Category of funding will be under ICWA.

IV. Funding Limitations:

Award Type:	Grant
Estimated Total Funding:	$2,000,000
Expected Number of Grant Awards:	6-10
Award Ceiling:	$300,000 per Budget period

Award Floor:	$150,000 per Budget period
Anticipated Project Start Date:	January 9, 2026
Anticipated Project End Date:	December 31, 2027
Length of Project Period:	Two Fiscal Years
Category:	ICWA
Cost Sharing or Matching	No (volunteer)

Matching requirement(s) are voluntary. Title II of the Indian Child Welfare Act, at Section 201(b), clearly encourages Tribes to seek funds from other sources to enhance the quality and scope of ICWA child and family services programs.

V. Proposal Application Guidelines

Prior to applying, applicants should review presidential actions found at: <https://www.whitehouse.gov/presidential-actions/> and DOI Secretary's Orders found at: <https://www.doi.gov/document-library/secretary-order>. By applying in response to this Notice of Funding Opportunity, the applicant certifies awareness and compliance with all currently effective and applicable executive orders and secretary's orders, including but not limited to the Executive Order titled Ending Radical and Wasteful Government DEI Programs and Preferencing as well as the Executive Order and Secretary's order titled Restoring Truth and Sanity to American History. Applicants are responsible for ensuring their proposed activities are consistent with the intent and requirements of these direct.

A. Background

On January 13, 1994, Indian Affairs (IA) published in the Federal Register (59 FR 2248) regulations revising 25 CFR part 23, the rules that govern the Title II ICWA grant program. The announcement converted the previous competitive ICWA grant award process to initiate a noncompetitive award system for eligible Federally recognized Tribes.

In FY 1995, the eligible Tribes began to continuously access their recurring ICWA funds in the Tribal Priority Allocation (TPA) budget Sub activity section of the Tribe's budget system. The funding process managed centrally by IA for off-reservation Indian Organizations was discontinued after the conversion to the noncompetitive process for eligible federally recognized Tribes. The BIA last awarded the ICWA off-reservation grants to Indian Organizations in FY 1994. Rather, some federally recognized Tribes have contracted with off-reservation Indian Organizations, if and where needed.

The BIA will distribute the FY2025 funding to off-reservation Indian Organizations through a competitive grant process as outlined in 25 CFR 23.31-23.35, in subpart D, Grants to Off-reservation Indian Organizations for Title II Indian Child and Family Services Programs.

B. Items to Consider Before Preparing an Application, Funding Limitations, 2-year Timeframes and No-Cost Extensions

Awards are subject to available funding. The BIA's obligation under this solicitation notice is contingent on receipt of available appropriated funds. No liability on part of the U.S. Government for any payment may arise until funds are made available to the awarding officer for this grant. No liability may arise until the recipient receives notice of such availability and is confirmed in writing by the grants officer.

C. Application Content and Format Pre-Application Requirements

Applicants should review presidential actions found at: <https://www.whitehouse.gov/presidentialactions/> and DOI Secretary's Orders found at:

<https://www.doi.gov/document-library/secretary-order>. By applying in response to this Notice of Funding Opportunity, the applicant certifies awareness and compliance with all currently effective and applicable executive orders and secretary's orders, including but not limited to the Executive Order titled Ending Radical and Wasteful Government DEI Programs and Preferencing as well as the Executive Order and Secretary's order titled Restoring Truth and Sanity to American History. Applicants are responsible for ensuring their proposed activities are consistent with the intent and requirements of these directives.

 - a. Click on Forms to open a dropdown menu. Select SF-424 Family
 - b. Find each of the below listed forms by their Form Name and click on the PDF letters for each to download the particular form. Under the column “Agency Owner,” third row down, is form name listed is “Application for Federal Assistance SF-424.” Click on the PDF letters to download the three-page document.
1. List of Standard Forms required:
 - 1.1.Application for Federal Assistance (SF-424)
 - 1.2.Budget Information for Non-Construction Programs (SF-424A)
 - 1.3.Project Abstract Summary
 - 1.4.Key Contacts
2. Required Documents: Applicants must attach the following documents.
 - a. Project Narrative:

Includes an Executive Summary and a Technical Summary. The Project Narrative must not exceed 20 pages.

- An Executive Summary includes an overview or an initial assessment of the project and includes a description of the specific ICWA services and activities the Indian Organization provides to Indian communities. The Executive Summary must outline the Organization's understanding of the ICWA and explain the existing working relationship with Indian child and family service programs, specifically in reference to family reunification and the prevention of Indian family breakups. This section will describe the challenges or needs faced by the communities served and how the goal/vision for this proposal will meet those needs. At a minimum, it should include:
 - A technical description of the proposed project and communities served, including geographic location, the population in the service area, and available information relevant to ICWA.
 - A description of the existing ICWA services in context to readiness to exercise the project's objectives and goals. The description must identify strengths and gaps in ICWA services where relevant. Provide examples of other Federal project and/or similar projects for which funding is being requested.
 - Describe the deliverable services that the project is expected to develop and the resources available to implement proposed project(s).

- The Technical Summary is a narrative description of the program’s skills and abilities, which includes the Scope of Work (SOW) outlining what will be done. This section must provide a clear link between the proposed activities and need to be identified in the Executive Summary. It must clearly state the project’s measurable goals, objectives, activities, methodology used, including culturally defined approaches, which the applicant will incorporate to achieve the identified goals and objectives. Indicate the project purpose (i.e., start up, expansion, or replacement), describe the proposed project and what it will accomplish (e.g., number of children and families it will service, service area, type of services).
 - The SOW must include a detailed outline of the project(s) deliverables, timeline, and milestones that will enhance ICWA services provided to children and families. The SOW explains how the applicant will measure and/or track its objectives and outcomes of the proposed project (performance measures), and why the methods utilized will achieve the stated goals. Tools may include quarterly performance reports and other data collected during reporting period.
 - Deliverables: Is the result that clearly defines each item(s) that the project will deliver. Whether it is a product or a service, state the reason why the task/item is being executed in the project for the customer – Tribe.

- Timeline: Is the road map that outlines the project from start to finish. The document delineates the major phases across the schedule of the project's duration.
- Milestones: Breaks down the timeline into manageable parts or tasks. This document should help to monitor the project's progress and assist the planned schedule. Key milestones, such as, project kickoffs, meetings, hand offs, and how proposed project activities and services will reach the population identified.
- Performance Measures and Outcomes: Is the process that the applicant will use to collect data and analyze the services provided to the organization, individual, group, or system (e.g., number of Indian children and families supported in family reunification foster and adoptive homes).

b. Documentation of Authority to Apply:

Applicants applying as an Indian Organizations must submit documentation of authority that demonstrates Tribal support (e.g., a Tribal resolution, letters of support, cooperative service agreements). The documentation must give the Tribal Organization authority to apply for the grant and contain authorized signature(s) by the application due date. Applicants applying as a Tribal consortium must submit documentation of authority to apply from each Tribe and include a copy of the bylaws or other governance documents that allow the consortium's action with the application. This documentation must give the consortium authority to apply for the grant, contain authorized signature(s), and be submitted by the application due date.

c. Resume(s):

Provide the resumes (with areas of expertise) of key consultants and personnel, and the nature of their involvement, including their relationship to the applicant as Tribal staff, consultant, subcontractor, etc. This information may be included as an attachment to the application and will not be counted towards the 20-page limitation.

d. Budget Narrative:

Provide a budget narrative that describes separately all major line item grant expenditures such as personnel, fringe benefits, travel, equipment, supplies, direct client services, contractual, indirect costs, or other major expenditures. Budget narrative must correlate to the project scope of work and clearly break the project down into defined tasks with an associated budget line item for each task. Include justification for each task and identify cost.

e. Critical Information Page:

Applicants must provide proof of its Indian Organization or consortium status as defined in Section II of this notice. Applicants must include a list and the contact information of the Indian Organization Project Lead(s) and personnel. The list must include those individuals that will oversee the project work, make authorized decisions, and is responsible for submitting the quarterly, annual, and the final reports, plus quarterly financial status reports. The designated lead personnel may not be a consultant. The designated Indian Organization Project Lead(s) is authorized to make decisions on the grant activities.

f. Federal Unique Entity (UEI) Number:

Each Indian Organization must verify that it has an active and updated registration in SAM.gov (<https://sam.gov/SAM>). This must include a UEI.

g. Current and active ASAP Enrollment with the BIA

Each Indian Organization must be actively enrolled with the BIA in the Automated Standard Application for Payment (ASAP) system to receive the grant. This information must be provided in the critical information page.

Submitted Applications must include all four (4) Standard Forms and all seven (7) attachments (a-g) described above. The BIA will not accept or review any incomplete applications.

E. Submission of Application in Digital Format

Submission of a complete application in digital form to grants.gov is required. For instructions, see <https://www.grants.gov/help/html/help/Applicants/HowToApplyForGrants.htm>. In very limited circumstances, the BIA may accept a non-digital application. Please contact the BIA at least a week prior to the submission deadline for approval.

Please use descriptive file names to help the BIA quickly locate specific components of the application.

F. Review and Selection Process, Initial Review

Prior to conducting the comprehensive merit review, an initial review will be performed to determine whether (1) the applicant is eligible for an award; (2) the information required by the NOFO has been submitted; (3) all mandatory requirements of the NOFO are satisfied; (4) the proposed project is responsive to the program objectives of the NOFO (program determination); and (5) the proposed project is in compliance with all applicable executive and secretary orders, including the President's executive order on Ending Radical and Wasteful Government DEI Programs and Preferencing as well as the executive order and Secretary order on Restoring Truth and Sanity to American History. If an applicant fails to meet the requirements or objectives of the NOFO, or does not provide sufficient information for review, the applicant will be considered non-responsive and eliminated from further review.

Applications will be evaluated for responsiveness to ICWA components under each Funding Category. Review criteria and the scoring system for each Category are identified below.

1. Project Description and Scoring System

Executive Summary (30 points): The Committee will evaluate the applications based on the clarity and content outlined in the Project Narrative [Executive and Technical Summaries, Section VIII, B (1)]. The Committee will assess if the application:

- Demonstrates an understanding of the ICWA.
- Describes examples of other Federal project and/or similar projects for which funding is being requested.
- If the application describe the current Indian population served and if it operates an existing child and family service programs, application contents emphasize the prevention of Indian family breakups and how project(s) will complement these existing services.
- Applicant understands the challenges faced by the community and proposed project clearly defines how it address these challenges.
- If the application offers a clearly defined narrative description of the program for the service area for the project that describes service population and geographic area.
- Describes specific services and/or activities with recent baseline data with plans that address gaps in services identified.

2. Project Objective, Technical Description, and Scope of Work (25 points): This criterion will evaluate the project objective, technical description, and scope of work as described in Section

VIII, B (2). The clarity of the described work and the appropriateness of the project in terms of meeting the intent and goals of the grant. The Committee will assess if the application:

- Includes activities, in the proposed project, that directly relates to the intent and provisions of the grant.

The BIA, Director will approve all final award selections. The BIA will notify all award applicants in writing.

G. Transfer of Funding and Transfer of Funds

The BIA's obligation under this solicitation is contingent upon receipt of Congressionally appropriated funds. No liability on the part of the U.S. Government for any payment may arise until funds are made available to the Grants Officer for this award until recipient receives notice of such availability, to be confirmed in writing by the Grant Officer. All payment under this agreement will be made by the U.S. Government by electronic funds transfer (through the Automated Standard Application for Payment (ASAP)). All payments will be deposited in accordance with the banking information designated for the applicant in the System for Award Management (SAM).

H. Reporting Requirements for Award Recipients

During the life of a grant project, deliverables will include an semi-annual project/technical progress update, and a final written report addressing components outlined in the Scope of Work. Annual written progress and financial status reports are to be submitted to the BIA using the GrantSolutions.gov portal 30 days following the end of the first year and annually thereafter. Reporting dates will be established by the BIA's Grants Officer and written into the agreement once the award has been made but will coincide with the Federal fiscal year calendar.

The semi-annual report consists of two parts: 1) a narrative report: a summary of events, accomplishments, problems and results during the year, and 2) a financial report SF-425: a list in of expenditures during the quarter, how the funds were spent, and the amount remaining. The project monitor will access the reports in the Grant Solutions system.

1. Delivery Schedules

The Tribal awardees will deliver all products and data generated under the project to the BIA via the GrantSolutions.gov portal within 120 days of project completion, as required by the signed agreement, and may withhold sensitive information (e.g., proprietary Tribal data or Traditional Knowledge). Such information may be redacted at the Tribal government's discretion because information in the possession of the BIA or submitted to the BIA throughout the process, including final work product, constitute Government records and may be subject to the disclosure to third parties under the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), 5 U.S.C. 552, and the Department of the Interior's FOIA regulations at 43 CFR part 2, unless a FOIA exemption or exception applies or other provisions of law protect the information.

2. Digital Format Requirements for Reports and Data:

The BIA requires that all deliverable products and reports be uploaded to GrantSolutions.gov.

Reports can be provided in Microsoft Word or Adobe Acrobat PDF formats. Spreadsheet data can be provided in Microsoft Excel, Microsoft Access, or Adobe PDF formats. All vector figures should be converted to PDF format. Raster images can be provided in PDF, JPEG, TIFF, or any of the Windows metafile formats.

3. Number of Copies:

The submitted proposal should account for the requirement that all final products be delivered in the format described above, one digital copy.

I. Additional Information

1. Entity Registration in SAM and Printing Confirmation:

Registration in System for Award Management (SAM) is required and online at <http://www.sam.gov/>. Once registered in SAM with BIA, entities must renew and revalidate their SAM registration at least every 12 months from the date previously registered. Entities are strongly urged to revalidate their registration as often as needed to ensure that their information is up to date and in sync with changes that may have been made to DUNS and IRS information. For SAM assistance, call: 1-866-606-8220. If the tribe's SAM registration name is not exactly the same as the legal name on BIA's list, the tribal organization should contact their local Procurement Technical Assistance Center (PTAC) as soon as possible. Changing a name can take several weeks. Find your local PTAC at <http://www.dla.mil/HQ/SmallBusiness/PTAC.aspx>. Alaska tribes may also call 1-800-478-7232.

To print confirmation page:

- Go to www.sam.gov
- Click on "Search Records"

- Click on “Quick Search” or “UEI Search” or “CAGE Code Search” query boxes to enter tribe’s information (any of these should work)
- Click “Search”
- If correct Entity Name and information are displayed, click “Save PDF” on right side of screen and add that to the application as the attachment for Requirement 2.

2. Excluded Entities:

Applicant entities identified in the SAM.gov Exclusions database as ineligible, prohibited/restricted or excluded from receiving Federal awards, certain subawards, and certain Federal assistance and benefits, will not be considered for Federal funding, as applicable to the funding being requested under this Federal program.

3. Registration in ASAP with BIA:

Although a Tribe or Indian Organization may be registered in in the Automated Standard Application for Payments (ASAP) already with another agency, it must be specifically enrolled with the BIA. To register in ASAP, an enrollment form must be completed and emailed to andrea.wilson@bia.gov. As soon as the Tribe is enrolled, a user ID will be emailed to the point of contact listed on the enrollment form. Next, a password will automatically be mailed by USPS to the tribe, but you can call the ASAP Help Desk at 855-868-0151 and press 2 then 3 to reach an agent who can help to request a password via email to expedite the process. Upon receiving a password, you will then have access to your online ASAP account to name the required roles for setup- this process is not immediate. To complete the process, call the ASAP Help Desk again and remain on the line with them while they assist you in setting up and linking the Tribe’s banking information to BIA’s Agency Locator Code (ALC/Region). BIA’s ALC is 14200699. Once this is completed, you will receive a confirmation email, and it will take the Treasury 5 - 10 business days to approve your ASAP enrollment with BIA. This process only needs to be done once and does not need to be regularly updated unless the Tribal staff changes who is named as the primary role in ASAP set up.
