I. Program Funding Opportunity Description

1. Purpose

The Appalachian Region Healthcare Support Program provides technical assistance (TA) to help rural healthcare organizations, including critical access hospitals (CAHs), small rural hospitals, rural health clinics, tribal healthcare facilities, and other healthcare organizations located in the rural counties served by the Appalachian Regional Commission (ARC) with planning and implementing health care service improvements.

The goal of this program is to strengthen healthcare delivery in rural areas of the Appalachian Region by improving financial and operational performance as well as the quality of care in rural healthcare organizations.

The TA provider funded under this cooperative agreement will work with individual healthcare organizations to meet the following program objectives:

- Provide objective analysis and assessment of healthcare organizations' financial status, market share, quality indicators, locally available human services, and gaps in services so that organizations can make actionable change;
- Identify clinical areas where expansion of services within a rural healthcare organization would meet local need, keep health care services available locally, and build capacity to improve financial and operational performance as well as quality of care.
- Support healthcare organizations in implementing best practice recommendations prioritized in TA action plans.

For purposes of this notice of funding opportunity, "rural healthcare organization" is a health care organization located in a rural area in the Appalachian Region. A "healthcare organization" includes critical access hospitals, small rural hospitals, rural health clinics, tribal healthcare facilities, and other healthcare organizations. To determine if a health care organization is located in a rural area, visit <https://data.hrsa.gov/tools/rural-health>. To determine if a county is in the Appalachian Region, visit <https://www.arc.gov/appalachian-counties-served-by-arc>. For more details, see Program Requirements and Expectations.

2. Background

The Appalachian Region Healthcare Support Program is authorized by 42 U.S.C. 912(b) (§ 711(b) of the Social Security Act).

The Appalachian Regional Commission (ARC) is a federally chartered, regional economic development entity that was established in 1965 to address economic distress in the Appalachian region.¹ The ARC focuses on 423 counties across Appalachia in 13 states (Alabama, Georgia, Kentucky, Maryland, Mississippi, New York, North Carolina, Ohio, Pennsylvania, South Carolina, Tennessee, Virginia, and West Virginia), and the Appalachian region includes 3 federally recognized and 5 state recognized American Indian Tribal Communities.^{2, 3} In 2024, 82 (19 percent) of Appalachian counties are designated as distressed (the most economically depressed counties) and 101 (24 percent) as at-risk (at risk of becoming economically distressed).⁴

Of the 423 counties that make up Appalachia, 107 (25 percent) are rural (non-metropolitan area), and nearly 10 percent (approximately 2.5 million people) of Appalachian residents live in rural counties.⁵ Rural Appalachian residents experience serious economic and health challenges. Nearly 20 percent of the rural Appalachian population are living in poverty, compared with 15 percent of the residents in non-Appalachian rural counties. In terms of disability, 20 percent of rural Appalachian residents have a disability compared with about 16 percent of the non-Appalachian rural population.⁶

Rural healthcare organizations, including critical access hospitals (CAHs), small rural hospitals, rural health clinics, tribal healthcare facilities, and other healthcare organizations located in rural counties provide essential health care to the nearly 60 million people who live in rural areas. However, since 2005 there have been 191 rural hospital closures across the United States, including nine closures in 2023.⁷ A 2022 HRSA-funded study conducted by the North Carolina Rural Health Research Program found that rural hospitals that closed between 2017 to 2020 were more unprofitable and much less liquid. The study reports that in the year leading up to a closure, most rural hospitals tend to have few days cash on hand, a negative operating margin, and a negative total margin.⁸

A related and ongoing concern is the financial sustainability of the remaining facilities. Based on the Federal Office of Rural Health Policy-funded financial distress index at the University of North Carolina Rural Health Research Center, 9.2% (196) of rural hospitals were predicted to be at high risk of financial distress in 2019.⁹ Hospitals experiencing high financial distress often reduce services, limiting access to care for vulnerable populations and worsening health disparities. Ten of the 13 Appalachian Region states have hospitals at the highest risk of financial distress.¹⁰ Another challenge that impacts the financial sustainability of rural hospitals is serving small populations. With smaller patient populations, rural hospitals have low patient volume and may not have enough patients to cover high fixed operating costs.¹¹

The Appalachian Region Healthcare Support Program aims to strengthen healthcare delivery in rural areas in the Appalachian Region through providing technical assistance to help build capacity in rural healthcare organizations, with a focus on improving financial and operational performance as well as quality of care.

II. Award Information

1. Type of Application and Award

Application type(s): New

We will fund you via a cooperative agreement.

A cooperative agreement is like a grant in that we award money, but we are substantially involved with program activities.

Aside from monitoring and TA, we also get involved in these ways:

- Provide technical assistance to you to help prioritize program activities and assess progress in achieving the goals of this cooperative agreement;
- Facilitating introductions to other HRSA programs, federal agencies and other HRSA award recipients as their work may pertain to assisting rural healthcare organizations;
- Sharing of relevant program data to ensure the greatest impact of TA efforts in rural counties in the Appalachian Region;
- Provide technical assistance, upon request, on processes for the identification and selection of sub-contractors, healthcare organization technical experts, rural healthcare organizations to receive TA, and other key stakeholders involved in the program;

- Reviewing and providing feedback and recommendations on TA products and proposed outcome measures specific to TA provided; and
- Participating, as appropriate, in the planning and implementation of any meetings, webinars, advisory committees, or work groups.

You must follow all relevant federal regulations and public policy requirements. Your other responsibilities will include:

- Consulting with HRSA in marketing available services, benefits of participation, and ongoing implementation of proposed activities;
- Engaging with key stakeholders such as State Offices of Rural Health, state hospital associations, and State Rural Health Associations to market services and identify potential rural healthcare organizations to receive TA;
- Working with the selected rural healthcare organizations to identify clinical areas where expansion of services would meet local medical need, help keep health care services available locally and improve rural healthcare organization finances, operations, and quality of care; and
- Ensuring interventions are responsive to the needs of the rural healthcare organization community to gain community buy-in, as well as commitment from key organization and community leaders for active engagement during the project and sustaining activities after TA is provided.

2. Summary of Funding

We estimate $1,500,000 will be available each year to fund approximately 1 recipient. You may apply for a ceiling amount of up to $1,500,000 annually (reflecting direct and indirect costs).

The period of performance is September 30, 2024, through September 29, 2027 (3 years).

Support beyond the first budget year will depend on:

- Appropriation of funds for this purpose
- Satisfactory progress in meeting the project's objectives
- A decision that continued funding is in the government's best interest

45 CFR part 75 - Uniform Administrative Requirements, Cost Principles, and Audit Requirements for HHS Awards applies to all HRSA awards.

If you've never received a negotiated indirect cost rate, you may elect to charge a de minimis rate of 10 percent of modified total direct costs (MTDC)*. You may use this for the life of the award. If you choose this method, you must use it for all federal awards until you choose to negotiate for a rate. You may apply to do so at any time. See Section 4.1.v. Budget Narrative in the Application Guide.

*Note: One exception is a governmental department or agency unit that receives more than $35 million in direct federal funding.

Attachments 6–15: Other Relevant Documents

Include any other documents that are relevant to the application.

3. Include any other documents that are relevant to the application. Unique Entity Identifier (UEI) and System for Award Management (SAM)

A UEI is required to apply for this funding. You must register in the SAM.gov to receive your UEI.

You cannot use a DUNS number to apply. For more details, visit the following webpage: General Service Administration's UEI Update

After you register with SAM, maintain it. Keep your information updated when you have: an active federal award, application, or plan that an agency is considering.¹⁴

When you register, you must submit a notarized letter naming the authorized Entity Administrator.

We will not make an award until you comply with all relevant SAM requirements. If you have not met the requirements by the time we're ready to make an award, we will deem you unqualified and award another applicant.

If you already registered on Grants.gov, confirm that the registration is active and that the Authorized Organization Representative (AOR) has been approved.

To register in Grants.gov, submit information in two systems:

- System for Award Management \(SAM\) (SAM Knowledge Base)
- Grants.gov

Effective March 3, 2023, individuals assigned a SAM.gov Entity Administrator role must be an employee, officer, or board member, and cannot be a non-employee. This change is to ensure entities are in control of who has permission to control roles within their entity.

Here's what this means:

- Entity Administrators assigning roles to non-employees will only be able to assign a Data Entry role or lower.
- Any entities assigning Entity Administrator roles using an Entity Administrator Role Request Letter (formerly called "notarized letter") will no longer be able to assign the Entity Administrator role to a non-employee.
- Entity Administrator roles assigned to non-employees will be converted to Data Entry roles. With a Data Entry role, non-employees can still create and manage entity registration data entry but cannot manage roles.

If you are an entity using a non-employee or if you are a non-employee working with an entity to manage registrations, please read (and share) more about this change on the BUY.GSA.gov blog to know what to expect.

For more details, see Section 3.1 of the Application Guide.

Note: Allow enough time to register with SAM and Grants.gov. We do not grant application extensions or waivers if you fail to register in time.

¹⁴ Unless 2 CFR § 25.110(b) or (c) exempts you from those requirements or the agency approved an exemption for you under 2 CFR § 25.110(d)).

4. Submission Dates and Times

Application Due Date

Your application is due on July 25, 2024, at 11:59 p.m. ET. We suggest you submit your application to Grants.gov at least 3 calendar days before the deadline to allow for any unexpected events. See the Application Guide's Section 8.2.5 – Summary of emails from Grants.gov.

2. Review and Selection Process

Subject matter experts provide an impartial evaluation of your application. Then, they pass along the evaluations to us, and we decide who receives awards. See Section 5.3 of the Application Guide for details. When we make award decisions, we consider the following when selecting applications for award:

- How high your application ranks
- Funding availability
- Risk assessments
- Other pre-award activities, as described in Section V.3 of this NOFO

3. Assessment of Risk

If you have management or financial instability that directly relates to your ability to carry out statutory, regulatory, or other requirements, we may decide not to fund your high-risk application (45 CFR § 75.205).

First, your application must get a favorable merit review. Then we:

- Review past performance (if it applies)
- Review audit reports and findings
- Analyze the cost of the project/program budget
- Assess your management systems
- Ensure you continue to be eligible
- Make sure you comply with any public policies.

We may ask you to submit additional information (for example, an updated budget) or to begin activities (for example, negotiating an indirect cost rate) as you prepare for an award.

However, even at this point, we do not guarantee that you'll receive an award. After a full review we'll decide whether to make an award, and if so, if special conditions are required, and what level of funding is appropriate.

Award decisions are discretionary and final. You cannot appeal them to any HRSA or HHS official or board.

As part of this review, we use SAM.gov Entity Information Responsibility / Qualification (formerly named FAPIIS) to check your history for all awards likely to be over $250,000. You can comment on your organization's information in SAM.gov. We'll consider your comments before making a decision about your level of risk.
