Except as provided herein, all terms and conditions remain unchanged and in full force and effect.

SECTION D – APPLICATION AND SUBMISSION INFORMATION

3. CONTENT OF APPLICATION SUBMISSION

Part 2 - APPLICATION STANDARD FORMS AND ORGANIZATIONAL INFORMATION

Organizational Information

ADD the following new paragraph to the list of Organizational Information items to be included in the Part 2 application:

- i. A statement to acknowledge receipt of Amendment 1 to the Notice of Funding Opportunity.

ADD the following new paragraph to Section D:

9. INTENT TO RELEASE APPLICATIONS AND NAMES OF APPLICANTS

The USDOT intends to release publicly the names of all applicants shortly after the application due date.

The USDOT intends to release applications received to representatives of organizations that have signed partnership agreements with the USDOT to support the Smart City Challenge (for example, Paul Allen's Vulcan, Inc.). Such representatives of partnerships will be required to sign non-disclosure agreements prior to gaining access to the applications.

In order to expand public awareness of Smart City technologies, concepts, and ideas, the USDOT intends to release publicly all Part 1 Vision Narrative application documents after selection of the Smart City Challenge Finalists.

By submitting an application in response to this Notice of Funding Opportunity, the applicant provides the USDOT permission to:

- Release publicly the names of all applicants;
- Release the Part 1 Vision Narrative application document to representatives of the USDOT's authorized Smart City Challenge partners; and
- Release publicly the Part 1 Vision Narrative application document after selection of the Smart City Challenge Finalists.
