Executive Summary

The U.S. Department of State, Bureau of Democracy, Human Rights, and Labor (DRL) announces an open competition for proposals for programs that investigate how perpetrators of transnational repression (TNR) infiltrate diaspora communities using faith-based or quasi-government organizations to target individuals and groups across borders and exploit governmental and quasi-governmental bodies and mechanisms. The program would then translate findings into immediately actionable options for individuals, organizations, governments and international bodies to mitigate risk and end these practices.

DRL seeks to support rigorous, evidence-based research that leverages the expertise and research networks of diaspora and faith-based communities to conduct open-source intelligence (OSINT) research, document TNR tactics, analyze perpetrator networks, and produce actionable findings for use by civil society, law enforcement, judicial bodies, and policymakers.

B. Eligibility

1. Eligible Applicants

The following U.S.-based and international organizations are eligible to apply:

- Not-for-profit organizations, including thinktanks and civil society/non-governmental organizations
- Public and private educational institutions
- For-profit organizations

C. Program Description

1. Goals and Objectives

Program Goal: This program will generate comprehensive reporting on the perpetrators of TNR, their exploitation of government and quasi-government mechanisms, and their infiltration of diaspora communities including faith-based and quasi-government organizations, with the aim of producing analyses informing both protective measures and policy responses that protect human rights.

Objective 1: Document and analyze the methods, tactics, and mechanisms perpetrators use to carry out TNR by manipulating governmental and quasi-governmental mechanisms.

Objective 2: Diaspora groups including faith-based communities improve the safety and protection of members and networks.

Objective 3: Evidence-based research findings and resources, including research that identifies TNR perpetrators and tactics, is made available to law enforcement, judicial authorities, and policymakers for improved state responses, including incident responses that pursue accountability mechanisms, and other state-led measures that thwart TNR and encroachments on their sovereignty.

Program Objectives

This program will focus on strengthening prevention, detection, and response capacities; improving documentation and reporting; promoting accountability; and fostering international cooperation to protect at-risk individuals and catalyze collective action against TNR worldwide.

Objective 1: Document and analyze the methods, tactics, and mechanisms perpetrators use to conduct TNR by manipulating governmental and quasi-governmental channels.

Illustrative activities:

- Map civil society organizations and networks frequently leveraged by foreign governments to perpetrate or organize TNR actions.
- Explore how TNR perpetrators exploit diplomatic channels, consular services, international organizations, legal and financial institutions, national and international law enforcement agencies, and other governmental or quasi-governmental mechanisms to facilitate repression across borders.
- Identify patterns in how TNR perpetrators co-opt community leaders, religious institutions, cultural organizations, and diaspora networks to harass, intimidate, and/or silence targeted individuals and groups.
- Analyze and report on the technological tools, surveillance mechanisms, and information operations utilized by TNR actors to target diaspora and faith-based communities.

Objective 2: Diaspora groups including faith-based communities improve the safety and protection of members and networks.

Illustrative activities:

- Establish partnerships with diaspora and faith-based community organizations representing populations targeted for TNR.
- Train community researchers, advocates, and leaders in OSINT methodologies, digital security protocols, and victim protection measures.
- Conduct community consultations to gather testimonies and lived experiences to inform case studies, while incorporating participant confidentiality and safety.
- Develop and circulate educational materials and resources on TNR recognition, documentation, and response strategies.

Objective 3: Evidence-based research findings and resources, include research that identifies TNR perpetrators, is made available to law enforcement, judicial authorities, and policymakers for improved state responses, including responses that pursue accountability mechanisms, and other state-led measures that thwart TNR encroachments on their sovereignty.

Illustrative activities:

- Document how foreign governments influence or apply pressure on faith communities to engage in TNR actions.
- Publish research findings on how foreign governments perpetrating TNR make use or co-opt overseas networks to engage in TNR actions.
- Produce reports that analyze the ways in which foreign governments perpetrating TNR may threaten or coerce individual members of diaspora communities to provide information or engage in TNR actions.
- Create publicly accessible resources for use by researchers, advocates, civil society organizations, and policymakers.
- Produce risk profiles that may indicate when individuals are at risk of foreign government cooptation for the purposes of enacting TNR campaigns.
- Deliver briefings and technical assistance to law enforcement agencies, prosecutors, and judicial bodies on evidence-based findings.
- Circulate analyses and/or case studies of foreign governments making use of or co-opting quasi-government functions or spaces to perpetrate TNR, such as overseas police service stations, civil society organizations or networks, or consular services.
- Provide technical assistance and evidentiary support to law enforcement and judicial bodies in active TNR investigations or prosecutions.
- Publish recommendations for policymakers and law enforcement actors to more accurately identify TNR tactics, especially non-traditional tactics, and take responsive action.
- Support the development of legal cases, complaints, or other accountability mechanisms against TNR perpetrators using research findings.
- Establish mechanisms for ongoing information sharing between researchers, affected communities, and accountability actors.

Applicants are not expected to include all activities in the above lists and are welcome to propose activities not included. Applicants should propose working in two to five countries, and strong applications will incorporate partnerships with local civil society in the chosen countries.

- Proposals should demonstrate the organization's expertise and previous experience in administering programs, preferably similar programs targeting the requested program area or similarly challenging environments.

Program Requirements:

- a. The organization will apply a Do No Harm approach to their documentation efforts to avoid over documentation, repetition, victims and witnesses' fatigue and re-traumatization. The organization will guarantee tailored communication with survivors and their family and informed consent with knowledge of the risks associated with documentation. A UEI is one of the data elements mandated by Public Law 109-282, the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act (FFATA), for all Federal awards. An applicant must maintain an active registration while it has a proposal under review by the Department and must continue to keep the registration active for the entire duration of the period of performance of any Federal award that results from this NOFO.

The 2 CFR 200 requires subrecipients to obtain a UEI. Please note the UEI for subrecipients is not required at the time of application but will be required before an award is processed and/or directed to a subrecipient.

Note: The process of obtaining or renewing a SAM.gov registration may take anywhere from 4-8 weeks. Please begin your registration as early as possible.

- Organizations based in the United States or that pay employees within the United States will need an Employer Identification Number (EIN) from the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) and a UEI prior to registering in SAM.gov.

- Organizations based outside of the United States that do not intend to apply for U.S. Department of Defense (DoD) awards are no longer required to have a NATO Commercial and Government Entity (NCAGE) code to apply for non-DoD foreign assistance funding opportunities. If an applicant organization is mid-registration and wishes to remove an NCAGE code from their SAM.gov registration, the applicant should submit a help desk ticket \(“incident”\) with the Federal Service Desk (FSD) online at www.fsd.gov using the following language: “I do not intend to seek financial assistance from the Department of Defense. I do not wish to obtain an NCAGE code. I understand that I will need to submit my registration after this incident is resolved in order to have my registration activated.”

Organizations based outside of the United States and that DO NOT plan to do business with the DoD should follow the below instructions:

Step 1: Proceed to SAM.gov to obtain a UEI and complete the SAM.gov registration process. SAM.gov registration must be renewed annually.

Organizations based outside of the United States and that DO plan to do business with the DoD in addition to Department of State should follow the below instructions:

Step 1: Apply for an NCAGE code by following the instructions on the NSPA NATO website linked below:

Guidelines for Budget Justification

Personnel and Fringe Benefits: Describe the wages, salaries, and benefits of temporary or permanent staff who will be working directly for the applicant on the program, and the percentage of their time that will be spent on the program.

Travel: Estimate the costs of travel and per diem for this program, for program staff, consultants or speakers, and participants/beneficiaries. If the program involves international travel, include a brief statement of justification for that travel.

Equipment: Describe any machinery, furniture, or other personal property that is required for the program, which has a useful life of more than one year (or a life longer than the duration of the program), and costs at least $10,000 per unit.
