LOI User Guide - E. Information Required in an LOI, Page 20:

E. Information Required in an LOI

For the submission of an LOI package on Grants.gov, please complete the required fields in the SF 424 within Grants.gov and attach all remaining LOI documents as outlined below. To attach the documents outlined below to the SF 424, please go to Section 15 of the SF 424, and click "Add Attachments." For those LOIs with multiple projects, a unique number or name should be used for attachments related to each project (i.e., Project 1, Project 2, etc.).

An Applicant will need to submit the following LOI documents as attachments to the SF 424 in order for RUS to consider an LOI submission complete via Grants.gov:

- i. A pdf of the completed PART "LOI for PART submission." The pdf can be found on the PART website.
- ii. Shapefiles for each project included in the LOI. Shapefiles must use the tool included in this Guide (Section 'L' below).
- iii. Supporting documents, including a copy of the LOI submitter's balance sheet and income statements for the shorter of the last three years or the years the LOI submitter has been in operation. The LOI submitter must also provide balance sheet and income statements for the last three years of any entity or entities providing equity or security for the loan, with an explanation of the legal relationship to the LOI submitter.

Application for Federal Assistance (SF-424)

LOI submitters must include a service area Shapefile for each project, see the PART LOI User Guide for details.
