		All costs must comply with the cost principles of 2 CFR Part 200, Subpart E – Cost Principles. All costs must be allowable (2 CFR 200.403), allocable to the agreement (2 CFR 200.405), and reasonable in amount (2 CFR 200.404).

	Personnel	Compensation for employees of the applicant, for example, wages and salaries. See 2 CFR 200.430, Compensation-Personal Services. Do not include the cost of fringe benefits in this category. Such costs must be listed in the “Fringe Benefit” category. Do not include the personnel cost of contractor’s or other organizations with which a contract or other agreement for their services exists. Those amounts must instead be listed under the “Contractual” category as part of the total value of the contract or agreement. Do not include the value of donated or volunteer services (or third-party in-kind contributions of services) as it may not be charged to the Federal award either as a direct or indirect cost (2 CFR 200.434). However, the value of those services may be used to meet cost sharing/matching requirements (2 CFR 200.306).
	Fringe Benefits	Fringe benefits should be separated out from the personnel category and are allowances and services provided by employers to their employees as compensation in addition to regular salaries and wages. Fringe benefits include, but are not limited to, the costs of leave (vacation, family-related, sick or military), employee insurance, pensions, and unemployment benefit plans. Also, see 2 CFR 200.431, Compensation-Fringe Benefits. Do not include the fringe benefit cost of contractor’s or other organizations with which a contract or other agreement for their services exists. Those amounts must instead be listed under the “Contractual” category as part of the total value of the contract or agreement.
	Travel	Travel costs are the expenses for transportation, lodging, subsistence, and related items incurred by employees who are in travel status on official business of the applicant. This only includes the travel costs directly incurred by employees of the applicant. Also, see 2 CFR 200.475, Travel Costs. Travel costs do not include the cost of renting a conference room for people who are in travel status. Instead, that type of cost should be included under the “Contractual” category. Travel costs incurred by a third-party under a contract or agreement with the applicant should instead listed under the “Contractual” category as part of the total value of the contract or agreement.
	Equipment	The common dictionary definition or common use of the term “equipment” does not apply to financial assistance agreements. Consequently, property that might otherwise normally be considered equipment, might actually be considered “supplies” as defined by 2 CFR 200.94. “Equipment” is defined as “tangible personal property (including information technology systems) having a useful life of more than one year and a per-unit acquisition cost which equals or exceeds the lesser of the capitalization level established by the non-Federal entity for financial statement purposes, or $5,000. See also §200.12 Capital assets, 200.20 Computing devices, 200.48 General purpose equipment, 200.58 Information technology systems, 200.89 Special purpose equipment, and 200.94 Supplies” (2 CFR 200.33).

		Include the cost of all equipment planned to be acquired under the agreement in this budget category. Do not include the value of third-party in-kind contributions of property (2 CFR 200.96) as it may not be charged to the Federal award either as a direct or indirect cost (2 CFR 200.434). However, the value of this property may be used to meet cost sharing/matching requirements (2 CFR 200.306). Do not include the cost of renting or leasing equipment in this category. Instead, such costs should be included under the “Contractual” category. Also, see 2 CFR 200.465. Also, see 2 CFR 200.439, Equipment and Other Capital Expenditures, regarding allowability of costs.
	Supplies	Property that might otherwise normally be considered equipment, might actually be considered “supplies” as defined by 2 CFR 200.94 (see section above regarding the definition of equipment). “Supplies” is defined as all tangible personal property other than those described in §200.33 Equipment. A computing device is a supply if the acquisition cost is less than the lesser of the capitalization level established by the non-Federal entity for financial statement purposes or $5,000, regardless of the length of its useful life. See also §§200.20 Computing devices and 200.33 Equipment” (2 CFR 200.94). Include the cost of all supplies acquired under the agreement in this budget category. Non-tangible goods and services associated with supplies, such as printing services, photocopy services, and rental costs should be included in the “Other” category. Do not include the value of third-party in-kind contributions of property (2 CFR 200.96) as it may not be charged to the Federal award either as a direct or indirect cost (2 CFR 200.434). However, the value of this property may be used to meet cost sharing/matching requirements (2 CFR 200.306). Also, see 2 CFR 200.453, Materials and Supplies Costs, Including Costs of Computing Devices, regarding the allowability of costs.
	Contractual	Services to be carried out by an individual or organization other than the applicant in the form of procurement. It excludes the acquisition of equipment and supplies, which is included under those respective categories. Do not include the value of donated or volunteer services (third-party in-kind contributions of services). While the value of those services may be used to meet cost sharing/matching requirements, it may not be charged to the Federal award either as a direct or indirect cost (2 CFR 200.434). Also, see 2 CFR 200.459, Professional Service Costs, regarding the allowability of costs.

	Construction	Include any construction, alteration, or repair of real property (e.g., buildings and facilities).
	Other (Direct Costs)	This category includes all other direct costs that do not fit in any of the other direct costs categories above. “Direct costs” is defined by 2 CFR 200.413. The costs in this section must be broken down in the budget narrative. Include sub-awards in this category Also, see 2 CFR 200.466, Scholarships and Student Aid Costs, regarding tuition remission.
	Indirect Charges	This category includes the amount of indirect cost permitted under the agreement. “Indirect costs” is defined by 2 CFR 200.414.
