

Appendix A

To meet the expanding needs of the Mexican penitentiary system, INL Mexico Corrections assesses that the below scope and types of courses are needed to further professionalize and prepare Mexican officials for the dramatic overhaul underway. However, other courses could be suggested for inclusion. Also, if certain courses* are deemed to be better offered in Mexico, they can be excluded from the proposal.

Expansion Course	Length of Course	Slots per course	Number of Courses	Total students over a two-year period
12 potential courses below	1-3 Weeks	25-30	Approximately 40	1000-1300

1. Correctional Institutional Management
2. High Risk Transport
3. Emergency Management
4. Emergency Response Team
5. Vulnerable Groups
6. Prison Industries (could be an additional study tour, rather than a class)
7. Mental Health in Corrections
8. Wellness and Stress Management
9. Female Offender Management
10. Drug detection and identification*
11. Report writing*
12. Searches, seizures, and evidence handling*