The purpose of this amendment is to provide clarification on the answer to one question received.

Question # 1

If at least 60% of funds in each component will be dedicated to grants, is there a maximum of 40% of funds in each component that may be administered directly by the recipient for program implementation?

Answer # 4

Administrative and management costs should also be included in the combination of grants/global development alliances (GDA) costs (i.e. about 60% of total award funds). Also, as stated in the RFA, applicants shall clearly illustrate their proposed grant programs "per" award work component (such as, for each component the approximate number and total dollar value ("X" sub-awards between "Y" and "Z"), who will do the work (local firms, sub-partners, etc.), and the end products for which client groups.
