Notice of Funding Opportunity
U.S. Ambassadors Fund for Cultural Preservation (AFCP) 2023

The U.S. Embassy in Jakarta is pleased to announce a call for Proposals for the 2023 U.S. Ambassadors Fund for Cultural Preservation (AFCP) Program.

AFCP aims to preserve archaeological sites, historic buildings and monuments, museum collections, and forms of traditional cultural expression, such as indigenous languages and crafts. Please note that full implementation of the AFCP 2023 Program is contingent on the availability of funds in fiscal year 2023.

For 20 years, the U.S. Ambassadors Fund for Cultural Preservation (AFCP) has supported more than 1,000 projects in 130+ countries. The United States has invested almost USD 1,000,000 dollars in Indonesian cultural preservation projects, including preservation of culinary heritage by HYPERLINK "https://id.usembassy.gov/u-s-culture-envoy-supports-indonesian-culinary-heritage-preservation-project/" Pusaka Rasa Nusantara project and restoration of the Tjong A Fie Mansion in Medan.

Eligible project implementers include non-governmental organizations, museums, educational institutions, ministries of cultures, or similar institutions and organizations, including U.S. – based educational institutional and organizations.
