

Stakeholders' Consultation Workshops: Feed the Future Bangladesh Livestock and Nutrition Activity

Consultation Workshops: USAID/Bangladesh is planning to hold five stakeholders' consultation workshops on the livestock sector. These workshops will be held in the following five districts of Bangladesh: (Jashore, Khulna, Barishal, Cox's Bazar, and Dhaka), and will be conducted in collaboration with ACDI/VOCA, the implementing partner of the ongoing USAID-funded Feed the Future Bangladesh Livestock and Nutrition Activity.

Potential Stakeholders: may include government, academia, private sector, media, civil society, non-governmental organizations (NGOs), associations, financial institutions, and the judiciary.

Potential Outcomes: may include creating awareness about the achievement of USAID's livestock interventions in the country, receiving feedback from stakeholders about their perceptions of USAID's current livestock interventions and suggestions/recommendations for future interventions.
