Program Description

Overview

OJP is committed to advancing work that promotes civil rights and racial equity, increases access to justice, supports crime victims and individuals impacted by the justice system, strengthens community safety, and protects the public from crime and evolving threats, and builds trust between law enforcement and the community. OVC is committed to enhancing the Nation's capacity to assist crime victims and provide leadership in changing attitudes, policies, and practices to promote justice and healing for all victims of crime.

OVC will use this Law Enforcement-Based Victim Services (LEV) Technical Assistance (TA) Program solicitation to select one organization to maintain a national level TA effort to develop, enhance, and sustain direct victim service programs within law enforcement-based systems to serve the needs and rights of all crime victims.

Statutory Authority

34 U.S.C. § 20103(c)(1)(A)

Specific Information

With this FY 2022 solicitation, OVC is taking steps to invest in the development and growth of law enforcement-based direct victim services at the state, tribal, and local levels nationwide. This program builds upon the existing LEV program, initiated in 2018, and includes 73 LEV grantees funded by OVC.

OVC will issue one award of up to $3,750,000, for up to a 3-year performance period, to an organization with the capacity to provide dedicated TA supports to law enforcement-based victim service programs across the country, including the current LEV grantee programs. The TA supports offered (e.g., through the use of webinars, publications, videos, in-service training modules, toolkits, best practice materials, and sample policies) should enhance trauma-informed, victim-centered services. The TA component is also intended to assist LEV grantees with the development or enhancement of LEV Program protocols and guidelines. The ultimate aim is to enhance the delivery of high-quality services that address the individualized needs of crime victims and ensure that victims are afforded the rights, services, and responses they need.

In addition to providing dedicated TA, the organization will be tasked with developing a competitive subaward process to select a minimum of 7 new LEV sites in state, tribal, and local law enforcement agencies in small, mid-sized, and large jurisdictions. The organization will be responsible for the overall project management and oversight for the new LEV sites. These new sites will operate programs focused on assisting and supporting victims in high-crime areas and communities particularly affected by violence and will support improving care and services to these crime victims. Requirements for the new LEV sites should mirror those outlined in the FY 2020 LEV solicitation. Subawardees will use funding to hire LEV staff to develop new or enhance existing LEV programs, better coordinate services, and develop partnerships with community-based programs to address the rights and needs of crime victims.

This program includes a subaward component, whereby the direct recipient is required to comply with all federal subaward requirements as described in 31 U.S.C. § 7502 and in Title 2 C.F.R. § 200 (including, but not limited to, the sections on "Subrecipient Monitoring and Management" contained in Subpart D and audit requirements applicable to subrecipients contained in Subpart F) and the OJP Financial Guide.

Goals, Objectives, Deliverables, and Timeline

Goals

The goal of this program is to maintain a national-level TA project to strengthen the capacity of law enforcement-based victim services.

Objectives

- Within the first 9 months of award, work with OVC to develop a competitive subaward process to add a minimum of 7 new LEV sites in state, tribal, and local law enforcement agencies in small, mid-sized, and large jurisdictions.
- Within the first 9 months of award, work with OVC to develop and host a pre-application solicitation webinar for subaward applicants. This webinar will fully explain the purpose of the LEV subaward program, define allowable and unallowable costs, and describe financial and programmatic reporting requirements.
- Provide all program oversight and management for subawards.
- Establish and perform regular monitoring of selected subawards and agencies interested in advancing their LEV Program to help model how such agencies can develop new skills, use new tools, and embrace new strategies unique to their jurisdictions.
 - Offer proactive TA to the LEV sites, including assistance with collecting appropriate performance data, reporting key findings, and guidance on providing digital services.
- Provide guidance to law enforcement agencies interested in replicating effective practices to build their existing capacities to assist victims.
- Participate as needed in conferences, roundtables, and other events as faculty presenters.
- Maintain sample policies, practices, and exemplary program materials, including in-service training material adaptable by the LEV grantees to their unique sites.
- Solicit feedback from LEV sites to track how they implemented new policies or practices as a result of TA.
- Use technology to enhance and expand virtual TA delivery and create regular opportunities for peer learning among LEV sites.
- Devise a plan to use the results of the LEV Mapping Project to develop useful products (i.e., publications, articles, etc.) that highlight the successes and challenges in law enforcement-based victim services.
- Continue efforts to promote the Enhancing Law Enforcement Response to Victims \(ELERV\) Strategy to interested LEV sites.
- Showcase these efforts (ELERV strategy and LEV) along with other OVC-funded law enforcement-focused programs run by the International Association of Chiefs of Police at Victims of Crime Act regional and national conferences and other relevant events.
- Coordinate with the OVC ELERV Fellow and other OVC-funded TA providers to avoid duplication of efforts through regular communication.

Deliverables

1. Develop a competitive application and review process to select a minimum of 7 new LEV sites in state, tribal, and local law enforcement agencies in small, mid-sized, and large jurisdictions. OVC will make the final approval of the subaward application, review process, and site selection.
2. Provide proactive, dedicated TA supports for the 7 subawards and additional 73 LEV sites previously funded by OVC.
3. Develop and maintain an online presence for the LEV program that includes LEV training materials, publications, and other relevant resources. This also includes the development and maintenance of an online peer learning network for all LEV sites.

Maintain awareness of successful policies, program materials, and strategies that can be used by LEV sites to enhance their program efforts.

5. Identify existing resources that a law enforcement-based victim service program could use to assist service providers and survivors of crime, including but not limited to: specifics on victims' rights by state, an overview of the criminal justice system, training/educational programs, and tools/resources to aid citizens in their recovery following homicide, driver-impaired crashes, sexual assault, domestic violence, trafficking, assault, burglary, etc.
6. Establish detailed plans describing an innovative and comprehensive LEV Program training series, with supporting and ancillary products (including use of existing LEV TA materials).
7. Establish a strategy for proactively providing TA to a growing number of LEV Program grantees.
8. Establish a timeline for making these products and services available to the LEV Programs over the 3 years of the project.

The Goals, Objectives, and Deliverables are directly related to the performance measures that show the completed work's results, as discussed in the "Application and Submission Information" section.

Evidence-Based Programs or Practices

OJP strongly encourages the use of data and evidence in policymaking and program development for criminal justice, juvenile justice, and crime victim services. For additional information and resources on evidence-based programs or practices, see the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide.

Information Regarding Potential Evaluation of Programs and Activities

OJP may conduct or support an evaluation of the programs and activities funded under this solicitation. For additional information, see the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide section entitled "Information Regarding Potential Evaluation of Programs and Activities."

OJP Priority Areas

The Department of Justice is committed to advancing work that promotes civil rights and racial equity, increases access to justice, supports crime victims and individuals impacted by the justice system, strengthens community safety and protects the public from crime and evolving threats, and builds trust between law enforcement and the community.

1. Priority Considerations Supporting Executive Order 13985, Advancing Racial Equity and Support for Underserved Communities Through the Federal Government

Consistent with this Executive Order, the term "underserved community" refers to a population sharing a particular characteristic, as well as a geographic community, that has been systematically denied a full opportunity to participate in aspects of economic, social, and civic life or whose members have been historically underserved, marginalized, and adversely affected by inequality. Such communities include, among others, Black people, Hispanics and Latino/a/e people, Native American and other Indigenous peoples of North America (including Alaska Natives, Eskimos, and Aleuts), Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, and Pacific Islanders.

In support of Executive Order 13985, OJP will:

- A. Give priority consideration to applications that include project(s) that will promote racial equity and the removal of barriers to access and opportunity for communities that have been historically underserved, marginalized, and adversely affected by inequality, when making award decisions.

To receive this consideration, the applicant must describe how the proposed project(s) will address potential inequities and barriers to equal opportunity, and/or contribute to greater access to services for underserved and historically marginalized populations.

- B. Give priority consideration to applicants that can demonstrate that their capabilities and competencies for implementing their proposed project(s) are enhanced because the applicant (or at least one proposed subrecipient that will receive at least 30% of the requested award funding, as demonstrated in the Budget Worksheet and Budget Narrative) identifies as a culturally specific organization. To receive this additional priority consideration, applicants must describe how being a culturally specific organization (or funding the culturally specific subrecipient organization(s)) will enhance their ability to implement the proposed project(s) and should also specify which culturally specific populations are intended or expected to be served or to have their needs addressed under the proposed project(s).

Culturally specific organizations are defined for purposes of this solicitation as private nonprofit or tribal organizations whose primary purpose as a whole is to provide culturally specific services to, among others, Black people, Hispanics and Latino/a/e people, Native American and other Indigenous peoples of North America (including Alaska Natives, Eskimos, and Aleuts), Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, and/or Pacific Islanders.

Note: Addressing these priority areas is one of many factors that OJP considers in making funding decisions. Receiving priority consideration for one or more priority areas is not a guarantee of an award.

This abstract should be written in the third person and will be made publicly available on the OJP website if the project is awarded. If you are requesting priority consideration, please indicate the priority area (A and/or B) you are applying under.

Proposal Narrative

The proposal narrative should be submitted as an attachment in JustGrants. The attached document should be double-spaced, using a standard 12-point font; have no less than 1-inch margins; and should not exceed 30 pages. Pages should be numbered and submitted as an attachment. If the proposal narrative fails to comply with these length restrictions, OVC may consider such noncompliance in peer review and in final award decisions.

The following sections must be included as part of the proposal narrative:

a. Description of the Issue

This section must describe the needs of victims of crime, best practices or research about crime victims in the United States, the availability of existing resources, and/or current gaps in responses to crime. Applicants should briefly describe any previous or current attempts to build the capacity of law enforcement agencies to address the needs and rights of victims of crime. In addition, the applicant should describe the technical assistance issues they expect to address and the relevance of the issues to law enforcement-based victim services, and any related research or evaluation studies that contribute to the applicants' understanding of potential solutions.

b. Project Design and Implementation

The application must provide a clear link between the proposed activities and the need identified in the “Description of the Issue” section above. This section must include the following:

- A clear plan for designing and delivering training and technical assistance to law enforcement-based victim service programs and their partners.

A time-task plan that clearly identifies objectives, major activities, and products for the duration of the project period. (The time-task plan presented in chart form will not be included as part of the 30-page narrative limit.)

- The designation of organizational responsibility and a schedule for completion of activities and submission of finished products. (In preparing the time-task plan, Gantt chart, or schedule, applicants should make certain that all project activities will occur within the proposed project period.)
- A dissemination plan for any training products or awareness materials that will be disseminated as a result of the proposed project. Products should be provided in accessible formats. Applicants should provide recommendations for dissemination by OVC. If those recommendations include nontraditional groups, such as organizations or agencies not likely to be included in a victim assistance or criminal justice mailing list, then applicants should be prepared to provide specific names and contact information. In most instances, publications that have been reviewed, revised by the grantee, and subsequently approved for publication by OVC will be printed by OVC and disseminated through the OVC Resource Center at the expense of OVC. Most publications also will be uploaded to the OVC website. However, product and/or publication dissemination may be limited to the organization alone. In this case, both a plan and line item for funding organization-wide dissemination should be included in the application.
- A plan for designing and delivering training and technical assistance specifically to tribal grantees.
 - If the applicant is seeking priority consideration for Priority 1(A), it should address in this section how the proposed project(s) will promote racial equity and/or the removal of barriers to access and opportunity, and/or contribute to greater access to services, for communities that have been historically underserved, marginalized, and adversely affected by inequality.

- Resumes for all key personnel and staff.
- A description of the applicant's capabilities to administer a subaward program, including, but not limited to, pre-award activities that include solicitation development and posting, stakeholder outreach, receipt and processing of applications, programmatic and financial review of applications, scoring criteria and application evaluation, and award notification. Further, the applicant must demonstrate its ability to administer subawards, including providing ongoing training and technical assistance to subrecipients, reviewing financial and performance reports, collecting and reporting performance reports by the grantee, and maintaining adequate records management. The requirements for subrecipient monitoring are described in 31 U.S.C. § 7502 and in Title 2 C.F.R. § 200 (including, but not limited to, the sections on "Subrecipient Monitoring and Management" contained in Subpart D and audit requirements applicable to subrecipients contained in Subpart F) and the OJP Financial Guide.

- If the applicant is seeking priority consideration under Priority 1(B), it should describe within this section how being a culturally specific organization (or funding a culturally specific subrecipient organization at a minimum of 30% of the project budget) will enhance its ability to implement the proposed project(s) and should also specify which culturally specific populations are intended or expected to be served or have their needs addressed under the proposed project(s).

d. Plan for Collecting the Data Required for this Solicitation's Performance Measures

Describe the process for measuring project performance. Identify who will collect the data, who is responsible for performance measurements, and how the information will be used to guide and evaluate the impact of the project. Describe the process to accurately report data. This section should also briefly describe plans to collect performance data from subawards.

Note: Applicants are not required to submit performance data with the application. Rather, performance measure information is included as an alert that successful applicants will be required to submit performance data as part of each award's reporting requirements.

OJP will require each successful applicant to submit regular performance data that show the completed work's results. The performance data directly relate to the goals, objectives, and deliverables identified in the "Goals, Objectives, and Deliverables" discussion. Applicants can visit OJP's performance measurement page at www.ojp.gov/performance for an overview of performance measurement activities at OJP.

OVC will require award recipients to submit quarterly performance measure data in the Performance Measurement Tool and separately submit a semiannual performance report in JustGrants. How to Apply Step 1: The applicant must submit the SF-424 and SF-LLL in Grants.gov at <https://www.grants.gov/web/grants/register.html>.

Step 2: The applicant must then submit the full application, including attachments, in JustGrants in JustGrants.usdoj.gov.

For additional information, see the “How to Apply” section in the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide and the DOJ Application Submission Checklist.

Submission Dates and Time

The SF-424 and the SF-LLL must be submitted in Grants.gov by 11:59 p.m. eastern time on June 23, 2022.

The full application must be submitted in JustGrants by 8:59 p.m. eastern time on June 30, 2022.

OJP urges applicants to submit their Grants.gov and JustGrants submissions prior to the due dates to allow sufficient time to correct errors and resubmit by the submission deadlines if a rejection notification is received. To be considered timely, the full application must be submitted in JustGrants by the JustGrants application deadline.

Experiencing Unforeseen Technical Issues

An applicant that experiences unforeseen SAM.gov, Grants.gov, or JustGrants technical issues beyond its control that prevent application submission by the deadline, must demonstrate all efforts in requesting technical support in order to submit an application by the deadline. Technical support is available via phone and email to the applicable SAM.gov, Grants.gov, or JustGrants support centers or service desks in which an applicant received a ticket number for resolution. If an applicant misses a deadline due to unforeseen technical difficulties, the applicant may request a waiver to submit an application after the deadline. Note: If an applicant does not submit all the required Grants.gov forms by the Grants.gov deadline, the applicant will not be able to proceed to the JustGrants portion of the application process.

An applicant experiencing technical difficulties with the following systems must contact the associated support desk indicated below to report the technical issue and receive a tracking number:

- Grants.gov - contact the Grants.gov Customer Support Hotline
- SAM.gov - contact the SAM Help Desk \(Federal Service Desk\)
- JustGrants - contact the JustGrants Support Desk at JustGrants.Support@usdoj.gov or 833-872-5175

An applicant requesting a waiver to submit a late application must document their request for technical assistance in an email to the OJP Response Center at grants@ncjrs.gov within 24 hours after the application deadline to request approval to submit its application after the deadline. If an applicant has technical issues with Grants.gov, the applicant must contact the OJP Response Center within 24 hours of the Grants.gov deadline to request approval to submit after the deadline. Waiver requests to submit after the submission deadline must:

- Describe the technical difficulties experienced.
- Include a timeline of the applicant's submission efforts (e.g., what date and time did the error occur, what date and time was action taken to resolve the issue and resubmit; and what date and time did support representatives respond).
- Include an attachment(s) of the complete grant application and all required documentation and material.
- Include the applicant's Unique Entity Identifier (UEI), any applicable SAM.gov tracking number(s), Grants.gov Help Desk, and JustGrants Support Desk Ticket Numbers.

OJP will review each request for late submission and required supporting documentation and notify the applicant whether the request has been approved or denied. For more details on the waiver process, OJP encourages applicants to review the "Experiencing Unforeseen Technical Issues" section in the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide.

Application Review Information

Review Criteria

a. Merit Review Criteria

Applications that meet the basic minimum requirements will be evaluated by peer reviewers on how the proposed project/program addresses the following criteria:

1. Description of the Issue (20%) - evaluate the applicant's understanding of the program/issue to be addressed.
2. Project Design and Implementation (30%) - evaluate the adequacy of the proposal, including the goals, objectives, timelines, milestones, and deliverables.
3. Capabilities and Competencies (30%) – evaluate the administrative and technical capacity of the applicant to successfully accomplish the goals and objectives.
4. Plan for Collecting the Data Required for this Solicitation's Performance Measures (5%) - evaluate the applicant's understanding of the performance data reporting requirements and the plan for collecting the required data.
5. Budget (10%) - evaluate for completeness, cost effectiveness, and allowability (e.g., reasonable, allocable, and necessary for project activities).

Additional Attachments (5%) – evaluate the content of subaward policies and procedures, organizational

b. Other Review Criteria/Factors

Other important considerations for OVC include strategic priorities (specifically including, but not limited to, those priority areas already mentioned), available funding, past performance, and the extent to which the Budget Worksheet and Budget Narrative (web-based form) accurately explain project costs that are reasonable, necessary, and otherwise allowable under federal law and applicable federal cost principles.

Review Process

Applications submitted under this solicitation that meet the basic minimum requirements, will be evaluated for technical merit by a peer review panel(s) in accordance with OJP peer review policy and procedures using the review criteria listed above.

OJP screens applications to ensure they meet the basic minimum requirements prior to conducting the peer review. Although specific requirements may vary, the following are common requirements applicable to all OJP solicitations:

- The application must be submitted by an eligible type of applicant.
- The application must request funding within programmatic funding constraints (if applicable).
- The application must be responsive to the scope of the solicitation.
- The application must include all items necessary to meet the basic minimum requirements.

Pursuant to the Part 200 Uniform Requirements, before award decisions are made, OJP also reviews information related to the degree of risk posed by the applicant. Among other things to help assess whether an applicant with one or more prior federal awards has a satisfactory record with respect to performance, integrity, and business ethics, OJP checks whether the applicant is listed in SAM as excluded from receiving a federal award.

In addition, if OJP anticipates that an award will exceed $250,000 in federal funds, OJP also must review and consider any information about the applicant that appears in the non-public segment of the integrity and performance system accessible through SAM (currently, the Federal Awardee Performance and Integrity Information System, FAPIIS).

Important note on FAPIIS: An applicant may review and comment on any information about itself that currently appears in FAPIIS and was entered by a federal awarding agency. OJP will consider such comments by the applicant, in addition to the other information in FAPIIS, in its assessment of the risk posed by the applicant.

Absent explicit statutory authorization or written delegation of authority to the contrary, all final award decisions will be made by the Assistant Attorney General, who may consider not only peer review ratings and OVC recommendations, but also other factors as indicated in this section.
