A. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

The Public Affairs Section of the U.S. Embassy South Africa of the U.S. Department of State announces an open competition for organizations to submit applications to carry out an exchange program for mayors and municipal leaders in the U.S. and South Africa. Please carefully follow all instructions below.

Priority Region: Project activities must take place in South Africa and the United States, and be directed at South African audiences/participants.

Program Objectives:

The objective of this program is to advance the overall goal of promoting prosperity and good governance in South Africa.

To accomplish this, the program has three key objectives:

1. Create a sustainable and collaborative network of relationships between individuals and institutions in the United States and South Africa, on which the U.S. Embassy can rely for enhanced people-to-people and thematic programs at the municipal level.
2. Create and maintain a sustained dialogue between cities in the U.S. and South Africa on key issues to share best practices and lessons learned.
3. Facilitate Embassy involvement in broader bilateral collaboration on a municipal level.

Participants and Audiences:

The project would have three programmatic pillars, each with distinct participants and audience.

1. A visit to South Africa by a group of three U.S. mayors. These participants must be recruited based on their approach to leadership and their innovations in management of critical issues in their cities. Ideally these participants would represent medium-sized cities with growth and industry-attraction plans. While in South Africa, the delegation would host roundtables, meet with public policy organizations, speak with local students in relevant disciplines, and conduct media engagements.

2. A reciprocal visit for approximately six South African mayors and/or municipal leaders to the cities of the mayors who visited, plus Washington D.C.
3. Through digital technology, continued conversations, and sharing of best practices between municipal organizations, universities, and civil society organizations in the respective cities.

U.S. and South African exchange program participants will be selected based on thematic relevance and overall profile and accomplishments. Collaboration with municipal-governance focused civil society organizations in the U.S. will be an important factor in the selection process. The U.S. Embassy in Pretoria will be the final approving agency for proposed participants from both countries and will have substantial involvement in developing the schedule and participant plan for activities in each programmatic element.
