3. Submission Dates and Times

Submitted applications will be reviewing on a rolling basis, approximately quarterly, until the expiration date of this Notice of Funding Availability.

Generally, the Embassy recommends that applicants submit proposals 3-6 months in advance of the intended project start date. The review of the applications will be dependent upon the funding availability at the time of submission, those received afterward will be considered for the review in next financial year.

4. Funding Restrictions

Public Diplomacy funded awards: Assistance awards executed under the statutory authorities of the Smith-Mundt Act cannot be issued to for-profit entities. The program statute contains no affirmative authority for an assistance award to a for-profit entity. This restriction applies to for-profit education institutions as well.

5. Other Submission Requirements

All application materials must be submitted by email to RangoonPDGrants@state.gov.

E. APPLICATION REVIEW INFORMATION

1. Criteria

Each application and proposals will be evaluated and rated on the basis of the evaluation criteria outlined below.

- Embassy priorities: Applicant has clearly described how stated goals are related to and support U.S. Embassy Rangoon's priority areas as described in Section A. Applicant has also clearly identified the American component to be included in the program.

- Organizational capacity and record on previous grants: The organization has expertise in its stated field and demonstrated ability to undertake the program. This includes a financial management system and a bank account.
- Quality and Feasibility of the Program Idea: The program idea is well developed, with detail about how program activities will be carried out. The proposal includes a reasonable implementation timeline.
- Goals and objectives: Goals and objectives are clearly stated, specific, and outcomes measurable. The program approach is likely to provide maximum impact in achieving the proposed results.
- Budget: The budget justification is detailed. Costs are reasonable in relation to the proposed activities and anticipated results. The budget is realistic, accounting for all necessary expenses to achieve proposed activities.
- Monitoring and evaluation plan: Applicant demonstrates it can measure program success against key indicators and provide milestones to indicate progress toward goals outlined in the proposal. The program includes output and outcome indicators and shows how and when those will be measured.
- Media outreach plan: Applicant describes a clear plan for how the program will be shared with secondary audiences through traditional and/or social media, if safe to do so. Branding waivers will be granted if safety conditions warrant.
- Sustainability: Program activities will continue to have positive impact after the end of the program.

2. Review and Selection Process

All eligible applications will be reviewed against the criteria listed above. Applications are reviewed individually against the criteria and not against competing applications. The panel may provide conditions and/or recommendations on applications and proposals to enhance the proposed program. Conditions must be addressed, and recommendations should be addressed in a full proposal application.

3. Full Proposals

Following the review, any successful applicants will be contacted and instructed to submit full applications. A full application will include:

- SF-424 (Application for Federal Assistance – organizations) or SF-424-I (Application for Federal Assistance --individuals)
- SF424A (Budget Information for Non-Construction programs)
- SF424B (Assurances for Non-Construction programs) for individual or organization exempted from registering in SAM.
- American Center Yangon (ACY) Small Grants Program Narrative
- American Center Yangon (ACY) Small Grants Program Budget Narrative

The forms can be obtained from the application package.

Required Registrations:

Unique Entity Identifier and System for Award Management (SAM.gov)

Unless otherwise exempt, grant applicants must obtain (except individuals) must obtain www.SAM.gov registration which will generate a UEI, which is free of charge.

Any applicant with an exclusion in the System for Award Management (SAM) is not eligible to apply for an assistance award in accordance with the OMB guidelines at 2 CFR 180 that implement Executive Orders 12549 (3 CFR, 1986 Comp., p. 189) and 12689 (3 CFR, 1989 Comp., p. 235), "Debarment and Suspension."

The Unique Entity Identifier (UEI) is one of the data elements mandated by Public Law 109-282, the Federal Funding Accountability and Transparency Act (FFATA), for all Federal awards. SAM.gov is the Federal government's primary database for complying with FFATA reporting requirements. OMB designated SAM.gov as the central repository to facilitate applicant and recipient use of a single public website that consolidates data on all federal financial assistance. Under the law, it is mandatory to register in SAM.gov.

The UEI will be assigned when an organization registers or renews its registration in SAM.gov at www.SAM.gov. To access SAM.gov an organization is required to have a Login.gov account. Organization can create an account at <https://login.gov/>. As a reminder, organizations need to renew its sam.gov registration annually.

www.sam.gov requires all entities to renew their registration once a year in order to maintain an active registration status in SAM.gov. It is the responsibility of the applicant to ensure it has an active registration in SAM.gov.

If an organization plans to issue a sub-contract or sub-award, those sub-awardees must also have a unique entity identifier (UEI number). Those entities can register for a UEI only at SAM.gov.
