To become certified, the law enforcement agency must meet two mandatory conditions: (1) the agency's use-of-force policies adhere to all applicable federal, state, and local laws and (2) the agency's use-of-force policies prohibit chokeholds except in situations where use of deadly force is allowed by law. The certification requirement also applies to law enforcement agencies receiving DOJ discretionary grant funding through a subaward. For detailed information on this certification requirement, please visit <https://cops.usdoj.gov/SafePolicingEO> to access the Standards for Certification on Safe Policing for Safe Communities, the Implementation Fact Sheet, and the List of Designated Independent Credentialing Bodies.

Program Description

Overview

OJP is committed to advancing work that promotes civil rights and racial equity, increases access to justice, supports crime victims and individuals impacted by the justice system, strengthens community safety and protects the public from crime and evolving threats, and builds trust between law enforcement and the community.

OVC is seeking applications under the Grants for State-Run Hate Crime Hotlines provision of 34 U.S.C. 30507 (e), to establish state-run hate crime reporting hotlines designed to assist victims who might otherwise be reluctant to report hate crimes.

Statutory Authority

34 U.S.C. 30507(e)

Specific Information

The Jabara-Heyer NO HATE Act State-Run Hate Crime Reporting Hotlines program authorizes grants to states to create state-run hate crime reporting hotlines. The state applicant is required by law and under this solicitation to ensure the following:

- The hotline will direct victims of hate crime to—
 - law enforcement, if appropriate; and
 - local support services.
- Any personally identifiable information that an individual provides to an agency of the state through the hotlines is not directly or indirectly disclosed without the consent of the individual, to—
 - any other agency of the state;
 - any other state;
 - the Federal Government; or
 - any other person or entity.
- The staff members who operate the hotline are trained to be knowledgeable about—
 - applicable federal, state, and local hate crime laws;
 - local law enforcement resources; and
 - applicable local support services; and
 - are trained on trauma-informed responses and working with victims.
- The hotline is accessible to—
 - individuals with limited English proficiency
 - individuals with disabilities.

Nonprofit organizations are eligible subgrantees under this program.

Goals, Objectives, Deliverables, and Timeline

Goals

The primary goal is to provide grants for state agencies to establish and run state-run hate crime reporting hotlines to facilitate significantly increased reporting of hate crimes data, and to ensure that victims and witnesses are connected to law enforcement and local support services as needed. The goal is to ensure that hate crimes do not go unreported and victims have access to needed services.

Objectives

Successful applicants will achieve this goal through the following objectives:

1. Collaborate with stakeholders, including victim service providers, survivors, persons with lived experiences, community-based organizations, culturally specific organizations, faith-based organizations, and other allied professionals and key stakeholders to complete a community resource map to identify the needs of the community and ensure that the resources available address those needs through a state-run hate crime reporting hotline.
2. Conduct strategic planning to identify gaps and facilitate implementation of the state-run hate crime reporting hotline. Community stakeholder input should be considered in this process.

3. Develop an outreach/marketing plan that outlines the ways the grantee will raise awareness of the state-run hotline, particularly to communities and individuals most likely to be targeted by hate crimes.
4. Develop a language access plan to include interpretive services available to callers, translation of outreach materials, and stakeholder engagement.
5. Perform data collection and participate in evaluation activities to determine if the program is meeting stated goals and objectives.
6. Raise awareness in the community about the availability of the state-run hate crime reporting hotline.
7. Other objectives as identified by DOJ.

Deliverables

The project will produce the following deliverables:

1. Strategic planning that should include, but is not limited to, the following:
 - a. Criteria to best determine strategies and effective collaborative models for developing effective state-run hate crime reporting hotlines;
 - b. Assessment plan to measure project effectiveness in achieving the identified outcomes;
 - c. Outreach/marketing plan that outlines the ways the grantee will raise awareness of the state-run hotline, particularly to communities and individuals most likely to be targeted by hate crimes. The plan must include a language access strategy and be approved by DOJ prior to the release of the state-run hotlines;
 - d. Letters of intent or Memoranda of Understanding (MOU) with key implementation partners; and
 - e. Summary report of all strategic planning committee meetings and strategic planning sessions with community stakeholders.
2. Policies to govern the operation of the hotline, including policies to protect the privacy and confidentiality of hotline callers, referrals to trauma-informed victim services, length of time until call is answered, etc.
3. Final implementation plan based on the strategic planning process.
4. Comprehensive assessment of the project, which should include, but is not limited to, an analysis of outputs.
5. Detailed final report that: (1) describes the project goals, challenges, successes, and strategies; (2) includes the implementation plan and any needs assessments, surveys, or other assessment devices completed during the project; and (3) discusses the comprehensive assessment of the project, including output analysis.
6. Other deliverables as identified by DOJ.

Successful grantees will attend an annual two-day summit in Washington, D.C. focused on best practices and information sharing (and budget grant funds for travel to these events) for the duration of their projects.

The Goals, Objectives, and Deliverables are directly related to the performance measures that show the completed work's results as discussed in the "Application and Submission Information" section.

Evidence-Based Programs or Practices

OJP strongly encourages the use of data and evidence in policymaking and program development for criminal justice, juvenile justice, and crime victim services. For additional information and resources on evidence-based programs or practices, see the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide.

Information Regarding Potential Evaluation of Programs and Activities

OJP may conduct or support an evaluation of the programs and activities funded under this solicitation. For additional information, see the OJP Grant Application Resource Guide section entitled "Information Regarding Potential Evaluation of Programs and Activities."

OJP Priority Areas

The Department of Justice is committed to advancing work that promotes civil rights and racial equity, increases access to justice, supports crime victims and individuals impacted by the justice system, strengthens community safety and protects the public from crime and evolving threats, and builds trust between law enforcement and the community.

1. Priority Considerations Supporting Executive Order 13985, Advancing Racial Equity and Support for Underserved Communities Through the Federal Government

Consistent with this Executive Order, the term “underserved community” refers to a population sharing a particular characteristic, as well as a geographic community, that has been systematically denied a full opportunity to participate in aspects of economic, social, and civic life or whose members have been historically underserved, marginalized, and adversely affected by inequality. Such communities include, among others, Black people, Hispanics and Latino/a/e people, Native American and other Indigenous peoples of North America (including Alaska Natives, Eskimos, and Aleuts), Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, and Pacific Islanders.

In support of Executive Order 13985, OJP will:

Give priority consideration to applicants that can demonstrate that their capabilities and competencies for implementing their proposed project(s) are enhanced because the applicant (or at least one proposed subrecipient that will receive at least 30% of the requested award funding, as demonstrated in the Budget Worksheet and Budget Narrative) identifies as a culturally specific organization. To receive this additional priority consideration, applicants must describe how being a culturally specific organization (or funding the culturally specific subrecipient organization(s)) will enhance their ability to implement the proposed project(s) and should also specify which culturally specific populations are intended or expected to be served or to have their needs addressed under the proposed project(s).

Culturally specific organizations are defined for purposes of this solicitation as private nonprofit or tribal organizations whose primary purpose as a whole is to provide culturally specific services to, among others, Black people, Hispanics and Latino/a/e people, Native American and other Indigenous peoples of North America (including Alaska Natives, Eskimos, and Aleuts), Asian Americans, Native Hawaiians, and/or Pacific Islanders.

Note: Addressing this priority area is one of many factors that OJP considers in making funding decisions. Receiving priority consideration for a priority area is not a guarantee of an award.

b. Other Review Criteria/Factors

Other important considerations for OVC include geographic diversity, strategic priorities (specifically including, but not limited to, those mentioned above relating to priority areas), available funding, past performance, and the extent to which the Budget Worksheet and Budget Narrative (web-based form) accurately explain project costs that are reasonable, necessary, and otherwise allowable under federal law and applicable federal cost principles.

Review Process

Applications submitted under this solicitation that meet the basic minimum requirements will be evaluated for technical merit by a peer review panel(s) in accordance with OJP peer review policy and procedures using the review criteria listed above.

OJP screens applications to ensure they meet the basic minimum requirements prior to conducting the peer review. Although specific requirements may vary, the following are common requirements applicable to all OJP solicitations:

- The application must be submitted by an eligible type of applicant.
- The application must request funding within programmatic funding constraints (if applicable).
- The application must be responsive to the scope of the solicitation.
- The application must include all items necessary to meet the basic minimum requirements.

Pursuant to the Part 200 Uniform Requirements, before award decisions are made, OJP also reviews information related to the degree of risk posed by the applicant. Among other things to help assess whether an applicant with one or more prior federal awards has a satisfactory record of performance, integrity, and business ethics, OJP checks whether the applicant is listed in SAM as excluded from receiving a federal award.

In addition, if OJP anticipates that an award will exceed $250,000 in federal funds, OJP also must review and consider any information about the applicant that appears in the non-public segment of the integrity and performance system accessible through SAM (currently, the Federal Awardee Performance and Integrity Information System, FAPIIS).

Important note on FAPIIS: An applicant, may review and comment on any information about itself that currently appears in FAPIIS and was entered by a federal awarding agency. OJP will consider such comments by the applicant, in addition to the other information in FAPIIS, in its assessment of the risk posed by the applicant.

Absent explicit statutory authorization or written delegation of authority to the contrary, all final award decisions will be made by the Assistant Attorney General, who may consider not only peer review ratings and OVC recommendations, but also other factors as indicated in this section.
