

INL CHANGE MAP TEMPLATE FY23

Updated: October 17, 2022

INL Change Map Template

See Appendix A for Instructions and Definitions; see Appendix B for the Design Work Aid

Date of draft: 31.05.2023

Project information:

Project Name: Improving Response to Sexual Violence in COUNTRY X through Sexual Assault Response Teams (SARTs)

Project Award Number: (TBD if award not yet obligated) TBD

INL Point of Contact (Name/Email):

Implementing Organization Name: ABC Org

Implementer Organization Point of Contact (Name/Email):

Start Date: (N/A if unknown) 1.15.2023

End Date: (N/A if unknown) 1.31.2025

Strategic Policy Alignment (To be completed by INL):

FBS Objective(s):

ICS Objective(s):

Other regional or cross-cutting strategic alignment:

Design element and Statement Note: Goal, objective, and sub-objective statements should meet the Change and Clarity standards described in Appendix B. In brief, state the result expected, and be specific about what we should observe if the end state is achieved.	Indicator name Note: Each design element may have no indicators, one indicator, or multiple indicators. Only collect indicators that will be useful for understanding the extent to which project implementation is proceeding as expected. Do not include indicators for deliverables. Additional indicator information should be provided in the PIRS.
VISION: Victims of sexual violence have access to justice and benefit from effective remedies and specialized protection services

INL CHANGE MAP TEMPLATE FY23

Updated: October 17, 2022

Goal 1: The mechanism for responding to sexual assault cases is fully functional at the national level, in line with international standards and best practices	Indicator: - changes in knowledge and response to cases of sexual violence by applying SART principles
Objective 1.1: Best practices regarding the functioning of SART are imported and integrated into national practices, setting the basis for further developments in this area	Indicator: - Availability of resources developed for the effective implementation of SART
Sub-Objective 1.11: Recommendations based on SART principles aimed to improve the systemic approach to effectively respond to sexual violence cases are available for authorities	Indicator: - Capacity to formulate recommendations based on good international practices for improving national response on individual and institutional level.
Activity 1.1: Organize a sharing of experience visit to the United States to explore existing programs, resources, and tools which could improve the national response of multidisciplinary teams	Indicator: - Multistakeholder group of professionals exposed to international best practices during the sharing of experience event to the United States
Activity 1.2: Conduct national workshops with representatives of national authorities to promote the best practices for the implementation of the SART	Indicator: - number of organized training
Activity 1.3: Conduct a research study to obtain high-quality information on SARTs' operations in COUNTRY X and effectiveness to inform efforts to support the multidisciplinary approach to sexual assault cases	Indicator: - Accessibility of thematic materials for professionals from multidisciplinary teams to serve as guidance;

INL CHANGE MAP TEMPLATE FY23

Updated: October 17, 2022

Objective 2: Multidisciplinary teams have the knowledge, skills and tools to provide immediate care for survivors and proper evidence collection and investigation	Indicator: - Level of knowledge and skills among professionals from multidisciplinary teams
Sub-Objective 2. A training programme for multidisciplinary teams is developed and available to be implemented nationwide	Indicator: - available programs and resources for multidisciplinary teams
Activity 2.1. Conduct a training of trainers for national professionals from social sector, law enforcement, medical and forensic regarding the multistakeholder approach to cases of sexual violence	Indicator: - number of certified trainers
Activity 2.2. Conduct national training for multidisciplinary teams on the methodology of intervention in cases of sexual assault	Indicator: - number of trained professionals from multidisciplinary teams nationwide
Activity 2.3. Provide methodological support and assistance to multidisciplinary teams responding to sexual assault, through direct psychological and legal support for victims	Indicator: - victims of sexual violence benefiting from multidisciplinary approach Number of victims benefiting from psychological support during criminal proceedings
Objective 3. Women and girls are reporting sexual assault cases to specialized available helplines	Indicator: - number of people taking action as result of the awareness raising campaign
Sub-objective 3: Informative materials aiming at combatting stereotypes regarding sexual violence and encouraging the reporting of	- category of informative materials aimed at combatting stereotypes regarding sexual violence and encouraging the reporting of sexual violence cases

INL CHANGE MAP TEMPLATE FY23

Updated: October 17, 2022

cases by promoting the Trustline for Women and Girls as a nationwide, free toll helpline for women and girls are available
Activity 3.1. Conduct a nationwide awareness-raising campaign to change victim-blaming attitudes, shift social norms and promote norms of equity, consent and safety	- Category of materials developed for the purpose of the awareness-raising campaign - Number of calls registered by National Trustline for Women and Girls during the awareness-raising campaign - # of reached audience through online messages and informative materials - # of professionals reached through online messages and informative materials
Objective 4. Justice and law enforcement apply a cooperative approach to cases of sexual violence, facilitating their access to protection and support services	Indicator: - % of justice and law enforcement proving improved knowledge and attitudes toward sexual violence
Sub-objective 4: A training program for justice and law enforcement on the investigation of sexual assault cases, adapted to the latest legal amendments is available	- Training for police and justice stakeholders available
Activity 4.1. Adapt the training program/resources for justice and law enforcement on the investigation of sexual assault cases, following the latest legal amendments	- category of training materials
Activity 4.2. Conduct training for justice and law enforcement on the investigation of sexual assault cases	- Number of participants attending the training for justice and law enforcement on the investigation of sexual assault cases - Category of institutions/sector represented by participants attending the training sessions