

Tribal Victim Services Micro-Grant Program Notice of Funding Opportunity

Amendment 1

July 30, 2020

Amendment 1 amends the Tribal Victim Services Micro-Grant Program – Notice of Funding Opportunity – DC-OVC-MG-20-001. Accordingly, the NOFO is hereby amended as show below. Applicants must acknowledge having reviewed the amendments in the application.

The application due date remains September 15, 2020.

For more information:

Laurie Orell
Denali Commission, Program Manager
lorell@denali.gov
(907) 271-1414 or (907) 271-5239

Janet Davis
Denali Commission, Grants Management Officer
jdavis@denali.gov
(907) 271-1414 or (907) 271-3036

Except as provided herein, all terms and conditions remain unchanged and in full force and effect.

Please amend language below. Red text reflects the added language. :

Page 4, A. Program Description

The program will develop new victim services in Alaska where they have not previously existed and expand the system of existing victim services.

Page 7, C. Eligibility Information, 1. Eligible Applicants, Eligibility, 3rd bullet

- The applicants can not appear on the list in Appendix A. Alaska Tribal organizations, village corporations, or Tribal governments listed in Appendix A are not eligible to apply for this NOFO as they received these funds in either FFY 2018 or 2019. In addition, OVC FY 2020 Tribal Victim Services Set-Aside Formula Program (CFDA #16.841) recipients are not eligible to apply.

Page 8, C. Eligibility Information, Additional Eligibility Criteria to Consider

- Priority will be given to applicants who demonstrate that they do not have a victim services program and the applicant proposes planning activities for the development of a new victim services program.

Page 10, 2. Content and Form of Application Submission, b) Component Pieces of the Application, Cover Letter, After #4

If applying to develop a new victim services program, applicants are highly encouraged to document this in the cover letter.

Priority will be given to applicants who demonstrate in the Program Narrative that they will complete activities to develop a new victim services program.