The U.S. Department of State's Embassy Amman announces an open competition to implement a program titled Reel American: The Road to the Olympic Rings. Reel American is a 21-month public diplomacy film program designed to showcase American excellence in sports and build excitement ahead of the 2028 Olympic and Paralympic Games in Los Angeles. Beginning in October 2026 and continuing through June 2028, the program will host one film screening per month, showcasing classic American sports films that highlight the nation's rich athletic history and tradition of competitive excellence.

The program targets 1,000 youth participants, ages 16–25, engaging the next generation of global leaders, athletes, and cultural ambassadors at a pivotal moment in their personal and professional development. Through curated screenings and accompanying discussions, participants will gain insight into American values such as teamwork, perseverance, and competition.

This program directly advances U.S. foreign policy priorities by celebrating America's proven capacity to host large-scale international events and by reinforcing the United States' legacy of sports excellence on the world stage. As Los Angeles prepares to welcome the world in 2028, Reel American promotes a positive narrative of American achievement and lays the groundwork for successful public engagement throughout the Olympic cycle.

B. PROGRAM DESCRIPTION

1. Project Background, Goals, and Objectives

As Los Angeles prepares to host the 2028 Olympic and Paralympic Games, PD Amman is soliciting proposals for a time-limited program strengthen America's global image as a nation defined by excellence and competition. International perceptions of the United States are shaped not only by policy and diplomacy but by culture—and few cultural exports resonate as broadly or as positively as American sports. Yet in Jordan, young people's exposure to American culture is often filtered through fragmented social media content or commercial entertainment that lacks historical or civic context. This leaves a gap in understanding the deeper values embedded in American athletic tradition: discipline, teamwork, perseverance, and the belief that talent and hard work—not background or privilege—determine success. With less than two years remaining before the 2028 Games, there is a clear opportunity for a sustained, recurring engagement platform that keeps American sports culture and the upcoming Olympics visible, relevant, and emotionally resonant to Jordanian audiences in advance of the opening ceremony.

Reel American: The Road to the Olympic Rings uses film as a low-barrier, high-impact medium for sports diplomacy. Sports films are uniquely suited to this purpose: they combine narrative accessibility with universal emotional themes—triumph over adversity, teamwork, and national pride—that transcend language and cultural differences. By pairing beloved American sports films with structured, monthly engagements over 21 months, the program creates a sustained "countdown" to the LA Olympics, ensuring that American sports excellence remains top-of-mind for participants throughout the pre-Games period. Screenings will be followed by facilitated discussions, allowing participants not merely to watch but to engage critically with themes of competition, resilience, and American identity, deepening the impact beyond passive viewership.

Reel American: The Road to the Olympic Rings advances U.S. foreign policy by reinforcing America's global leadership in hosting large-scale sporting events and by projecting a compelling, values-based narrative of American achievement. As the world's attention turns toward Los Angeles, the program helps ensure that Jordanian audiences associate the Games not only with athletic competition but with broader American ideals of opportunity and excellence—strengthening the foundation for positive engagement throughout the Olympic cycle and beyond.

Project Audience(s):

The program's target audience is 1,000 youth aged 16–25. This age group is a strategic focus for public engagement because participants are old enough to engage critically with complex themes yet young enough that attitudes toward the United States remain highly malleable. The program will specifically target:

- University students and young professionals who are emerging as future civic, cultural, or business leaders.
- Aspiring athletes and sports enthusiasts who have a natural affinity for the program's subject matter and may serve as authentic messengers within their peer networks.
- Youth with limited prior exposure to American culture, for whom the program may serve as a foundational and formative touchpoint in shaping perceptions of the United States.

Project Goal:

The long-term goal of Reel American is to strengthen positive Jordanian perceptions of the United States as a nation of opportunity and excellence, using the 2028 Los Angeles Olympics as a catalyst for sustained public engagement, showcasing America's unmatched capacity to convene, inspire, and unite the world through major international sporting events.

Project Objectives:

To achieve this goal, Reel American will pursue the following measurable objectives:

1. Conduct 21 monthly film screenings between October 2026 and June 2028. Grantee will be responsible for securing screening rights, hosting film screenings at professional movie theaters, facilitating guided discussions with participants, providing U.S. brand refreshments, and coordinating with U.S. companies to provide promotional opportunities. U.S. Embassy Amman will have final approval on all programmatic elements, including film titles, discussion themes, and integration with American businesses.
2. Engage a cumulative total of 1,000 emerging leaders aged 16–25. Each screening will host 50 participants for a film viewing and follow-up discussion.
3. Facilitate post-screening discussions at each event to deepen participant engagement with American values and Olympic history.
4. Increase participant familiarity with and favorable attitude toward the United States and the 2028 LA Olympics, as measured through pre- and post-program surveys.

3. Budget Justification Narrative

- Detailed Budget - Applicants must submit a detailed line-item budget. Applicants are encouraged to utilize the template provided with the funding opportunity but are not required to do so (Attachment 3- Budget Narrative Sample). Line-item expenditures should be listed in the greatest possible detail. The budget must identify the total amount of funding requested, with a breakdown of amounts to be spent in the following budget categories: personnel; fringe benefits; travel; equipment; supplies; consultants/contracts; other direct costs; and indirect costs. See Annex Section I for a description of the types of costs that should be included in each category. Personnel salaries should include the level of effort and the rate of pay, which should cover the percentage of time each staff member will dedicate to grant-based activities. If an organization is charging an indirect cost rate without a NICRA, it must apply it to the modified total budget costs (MTDC), refer to 2CFR§200.1. Budgets shall be submitted in U.S. dollars and final grant agreements will be conducted in U.S. dollars.
- Budget Justification Narrative – Applicants must submit a budget justification narrative to accompany the detailed line-item budget. OTHER INFORMATION

Guidelines for Budget Justification

Personnel and Fringe Benefits: Describe the wages, salaries, and benefits of temporary or permanent staff who will be working directly for the applicant on the program, and the percentage of their time that will be spent on the program.

Travel: Estimate the costs of travel and per diem for this program, for program staff, consultants or speakers, and participants/beneficiaries. If the program involves international travel, include a brief statement of justification for that travel.

Equipment: Describe any machinery, furniture, or other personal property that is required for the program, which has a useful life of more than one year (or a life longer than the duration of the program), and costs at least $10,000 per unit.

Supplies: List and describe all the items and materials, including any computer devices, that are needed for the program. If an item costs more than $10,000 per unit, then put it in the budget under Equipment.

Contractual: Describe goods and services that the applicant plans to acquire through a contract with a vendor. Also describe any sub-awards to non-profit partners that will help carry out the program activities.

Other Direct Costs: Describe other costs directly associated with the program, which do not fit in the other categories. For example, shipping costs for materials and equipment or applicable taxes. All “Other” or “Miscellaneous” expenses must be itemized and explained.

Indirect Costs: These are costs that cannot be linked directly to the program activities, such as overhead costs needed to help keep the organization operating. If your organization has a Negotiated Indirect Cost Rate (NICRA) and includes NICRA charges in the budget, attach a copy of your latest NICRA. Organizations that have never had a NICRA may request indirect costs of 15% of Modified Total Direct Costs (MTDC) as defined in 2 CFR 200.1.

“Cost Sharing” refers to contributions from the organization or other entities other than the U.S. Embassy. It also includes in-kind contributions such as volunteers’ time and donated venues.

Alcoholic Beverages: Please note that award funds cannot be used for alcoholic beverages and other entertainment related expenses.

STEP Enrollment

U.S. citizens who travel to Jordan are encouraged to enroll in the Department of State's Smart Traveler Enrollment Program (STEP) available at: <https://step.state.gov/step/>. Enrollment enables citizens to receive security-related messages from the Embassy and makes it easier for us to locate you in an emergency. The Embassy also recommends that all travelers review the State Department's travel website at travel.state.gov for the Travel Warnings, Travel Alerts, and Jordan Specific Information.
